Launch brief: Kestrel 2.0

Kestrel · Launch date: 18 November 2026 · Owner: Marketing

The one-liner

Kestrel 2.0 turns every customer call into a searchable brief, with the follow-ups already drafted.

Why it matters

Sales teams told us the same thing in 41 interviews: they spend more time writing up calls than having them. Kestrel 1 transcribed calls. Kestrel 2.0 understands them. It pulls out decisions, objections and next steps, and drafts the email you would have written.

What's new

- Call briefs. A one-page summary of every call, ready two minutes after it ends.
- Drafted follow-ups. Emails written in your voice, waiting in your outbox for review.
- Deal timeline. Every call, email and decision on one page, per account.
- CRM sync. Briefs and next steps land in Salesforce and HubSpot automatically.

Pricing

Plan	Price	Includes
Starter	$19 per seat / month	Call briefs, 200 calls a month
Team	$39 per seat / month	Everything, plus CRM sync
Enterprise	Custom	SSO, data residency, audit log

> "We used to lose the details of a call by Friday. Now the brief is in the CRM before I've hung up." Priya Raman, Head of Sales at Fernway
